

Hannah Catherine Munro

Hannah Catherine Munro has over twenty years of sports business experience on a national and international level. She is currently the director of development for the Virginia High School League.

Hannah Catherine oversees all aspects of the VHSL development program including corporate sponsorship, grant writing, annual fund and donor cultivation. She is the staff liaison for the VHSL Foundation and she coordinates League marketing and special promotions.

Prior to coming to the VHSL she worked for the Atlanta Hawks (NBA) and AFCC (a sports marketing firm) in London, UK.